

This Mastery Skills training is designed for individuals with a foundational understanding and knowledge of the topic. Prior experience in the subject is required to fully benefit from the programme.

Introducing the cutting-edge "Jewellery Design and 3D Printing Fabrication" professional course at Enterprise FabLab! Gain the technical expertise to revolutionize the world of jewellery. Tailored for designers, engineers, and architects, this immersive program combines the art of jewellery design with the power of 3D printing technology. Discover the latest trends, refine your skills, and bring your unique designs to life. From concept to creation, our expert instructors will guide you through the entire process, equipping you with the knowledge to design and fabricate stunning, customized jewellery pieces. Don't miss this opportunity to embark on a transformative journey at Enterprise FabLab and become a trailblazer in the jewellery industry. Enrol now and embrace the future of jewellery design!

Unlock the limitless potential of digital fabrication and innovation alongside the esteemed architect, Oscar, in our exclusive training course designed for professionals like you. Oscar's exceptional expertise and remarkable accolades, including Fab Academy, Urban Innovation, Energy Efficiency, and Design and Parametric fabrication diplomas, set him apart as a true master of the craft. With 8 years of hands-on experience in Fablabs, 5 years of prototyping and digital fabrication excellence, and 2 years of teaching Industrial Design, Oscar is the ultimate mentor to guide you on your transformative journey. His unwavering commitment to upskilling and empowering professionals ensures you'll gain the critical tools and knowledge to thrive in this dynamic field. Elevate your skills and career under Oscar's expert guidance - seize this extraordinary opportunity and secure your spot now!